

Facility Maintenance

Explore Experience
DELAWARE AREA CAREER CENTER
Excel

North Campus
Delaware Area Career Center

1610 St. Rt. 521, Delaware, OH 43015

Phone: (740) 203-2244

Instructor:

Scott Grover, ext. 2244, grovers@DelawareAreaCC.org

This two year program prepares students for employment in the field of building and property maintenance. Level I students are trained in the lab. Level II students continue advanced training and may qualify for paid work experience appropriate to their skill level.

What do I learn?

- hand and power tools
- basic carpentry and repairs
- roofing applications and repairs
- electrical and plumbing installations and repairs
- welding and cutting operations
- painting and wallpapering
- building and grounds maintenance
- masonry and ceramic tile applications and repairs
- basic heating, ventilation, air conditioning, refrigeration, and appliance installations and service

Potential careers options and salaries

Construction laborer
$7.71-$23.61/hr

Industrial Machinery mechanic
$15.09 - $27.59/hr

*Occupational Outlook Handbook, U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2006-2007

Why should I come to Delaware Area Career Center?

You will earn your fork lift license and obtain EPA HVAC certification. you also learn valuable skills that make you more employable than other high school graduates. Best of all, The Delaware Area Career Center is free. All our students pay for is their supplies. This training and certification can cost thousands of dollars for high school graduates and adults.

What will I be able to do when I complete the facility maintenance program at Delaware Area Career Center?

Upon completion, you will be able to work in appliance repair, property and grounds maintenance, or as a construction laborer or maintenance technician. You can also become a trade apprentice.

What other benefits does the Delaware Area Career Center offer?

You will learn independent work skills and improve your problem solving and decision making skills. You will also experience leadership and teamwork. Students get to take field trips and listen to frequent guest speakers as well.

Check us out at DelawareAreaCC.org or call (740) 363-1993 to set up a tour.

Delaware Area Career Center affirms that no person shall, on the basis of age, gender, race, color, national origin, religion or creed, pregnancy, handicap or disability be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity conducted under its auspices. Neither the Board nor its employees shall discriminate against any student or individual entitled to participate in the educational program or activities offered by the District, or in the employment or treatment of school district personnel. Courses are available contingent upon sufficient enrollment.